

UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs
Summary of Diversity-related Activities
March 2016

Degree or Certificate Programs

Undergraduate

1 Minor Program

Graduate

2 Master's Programs

Courses

Undergraduate

23 courses across 4 departments

Graduate

23 Courses across 3 departments

Faculty and Researchers

28 faculty members and researchers across 7 departments

Faculty expertise across the school includes economic and community development, accessibility of social services, race and ethnicity, immigration, ethics and governance, information technology, labor unions, and aging.

Examples of Service

The UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs is committed to public service and houses numerous research and outreach initiatives related to diversity and hosts many seminars, lectures, and workshops for policymakers and the public. Research centers include: the Luskin Center for Innovation, The Ralph and Goldy Lewis Center for Regional Policy Studies, the Institute of Transportation Studies, the Center for Civil Society, the Institute on Inequality and Democracy, the Center for Health Policy Research, the Center for Policy Research on Aging, the Center on Child Welfare, and the California Social Work Education Center (CalSWEC) Public Child Welfare Program.

UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs: Diversity-related Programs

Department	Title of Program	Degree or Certificate	Undergraduate or Graduate	Additional Notes
Social Welfare	Asian American Studies Interdepartmental MA/Social Welfare MSW	MA/MSW	Graduate	Concurrent Degrees
Urban Planning	Latin American Studies Interdepartmental MA/Urban Planning MURP	MA/MURP	Graduate	Concurrent Degrees
Urban Planning	Urban and Regional Studies Minor	Minor Degree	Undergraduate	